- (a) a Special Resolution passed by the Company in General Meeting before the issue of the Debenture or the raising of the loans, and
- (b) the Central Government before the issue of the Debentures or raising of the loans or in conformity with the rules, if any, made by that Government in this behalf.

- 7. (a) The rights attached to each class of shares (unless otherwise provided by the terms of the issue of the shares of that class) may, subject to the provisions of Section 106 and 107 of the Act be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than three fourths of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a special General Meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.
 - (b) To every such separate General Meeting the provisions of these Articles relating to General Meetings shall MUTATIS MUTANDIS apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy one tenth of the Issued shares of that class.
- 8. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided for the terms of the issue of shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation of further shares ranking PARI PASSU therewith.
 - 9. The Company shall not issue any shares (not being Preference Shares) which carry voting rights or rights in the Company as to dividend capital or otherwise which are disproportionate to the rights attached to the holders of other shares not being Preference Shares.
 - 10. The Company may at any time pay a commission to any person for subscribing or agreeing to subscribe (whether absolutely or conditionally) for any shares, debentures or debentures stock of the Company or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions (whether absolute or conditional) for shares, debentures or debenture-stock of the Company but so that If the commission in respect of shares shall be paid or payable out of the capital, the statutory conditions and requirements shall be observed and complied with. The Company may also on any Issue of shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful.

11. The joint-holders of a share or shares shall be jointly as well as severally liable for the payment of all instalments and calls due in respect of such share or shares.
12. Save as otherwise provided by these Articles, the Company shall be entitled to treat the Registered holder of any shares as the absolute owner thereof and accordingly the Company shall not, except as ordered by a Court of competent jurisdiction or as by a statute required, be bound to recognise any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest, lien, pledge or charge in any share or (except only as by these presents otherwise provided for) any other right in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.
13. (a) The Board may issue and allot shares in the capital of the Company as payment or part payment for any property sold or goods transferred or machinery or appliances supplied or for services rendered or to be rendered to the Company In or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the acquisition and/or conduct of Its business and shares may be so allotted as fully paid-up shares, and if so issued, shall be deemed to be fully paid up shares.

(b) As regards all allotments, from time to time made, the Board shall duly comply with Section 75 of the Act.
14. An application signed by or on behalf of the applicant for shares in the Company, followed by an allotment of any shares therein, shall be acceptance of the shares within the meaning of these Articles; and every person who thus or otherwise accepts any shares and whose name is on the Register shall, for the purpose of these Articles, be a shareholder.
15. (1) Every person whose name is entered as a member in the Register shall be entitled to receive without payment.

(a) One Certificate for all his shares; or Sub-division/consolidation of shares shall not be entertained except when such sub-division/consolidation is required to make them into marketable lots or is required to be made to comply with a statutory order or of an order of a competent court of law or otherwise required by law.

(b) Share Certificates shall be issued in marketable lots of 100 shares. Where the share certificates are issued either for more or less than the marketable lots, sub-division/consolidation into marketable lots shall be done free of charge,

(2) The Company shall within three months after the allotment and within one month after application for registration of the transfer of any shares or debentures complete and have ready for delivery, the share certificates for all the shares and debentures so allotted or transferred unless the conditions of issue of the said shares otherwise provide.

(3) Every Certificate shall be under the seal and shall specify the shares to which it relates and the amount paid-up thereon.

(4) Every Certificate of title to shares shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of the Companies (Issue of Share Certificates) Rules, 1960 or any amendment thereof or any provision of law applicable thereon, for the time being in force.
16. In respect of any share or shares held jointly by several persons, the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate for the same share or shares and the delivery of a certificate for the share or shares to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders. Subject as aforesaid, where more than one share is so held, the joint holders shall be entitled to apply jointly for the issue of certificates in accordance with Article 17 below.

17. If a certificate be worn out, old decrepit, defaced, destroyed or lost or if there is no further space on the back thereof for endorsement of transfer, it shall, if requested, be replaced by a new certificate without any fee provided however that such new certificate shall not be given except upon delivery of the worn out, old decrepit, or defaced or used up certificate for the purpose of cancellation, or upon proof of destruction or loss, on such terms as to evidence, advertisement and indemnity and the payment of out of pocket expenses as the Board may require in the case of the certificate having been destroyed or lost. Any renewed certificate shall be marked as such in accordance with the Companies (Issue of Share Certificate) Rules, 1960 or any modification thereof for the time being in force.
18. If by the conditions of allotment of any share, the whole or part of the amount or issue price thereof shall be payable by instalments, every such instalment shall, when due, be paid to the Company by the person who for the time being and from time to time shall be registered holder of the share or his legal representative or representatives, if any.

LIEN

19. The Company shall have first and paramount lien upon all shares other than fully paid-up shares registered in the name of any member, either alone or jointly with any other person and upon the proceeds or sale thereof for all moneys called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such shares and such lien shall extend to all dividends from time to time declared in respect of such shares. But the Directors at any time may declare any shares to be exempt, wholly or partially from the provisions of this Article. Unless otherwise agreed the registration of transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien if any, on such shares.
20. For the purpose of enforcing such lien the Board of Directors may sell the shares subject thereto in such manner, as it thinks fit but no sale shall be made until the expiration of 14 days after a notice in writing stating and demanding payment of such amount in respect of which the lien exists has been given to the registered holder of the shares for the time being or to the person entitled to the shares by reason of the death or insolvency of the registered holder.
21. (a) To give effect to such sale, the Board of Directors may authorise any person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof and the purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the share comprised in any such transfer.

(b) The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the sale.
22. The net proceeds of any such sale shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of said moneys due from the member and the balance, if any, shall be paid to him or the person, if any, entitled by transmission to the shares on the date of the sale.

CALLS ON SHARES

23. Subject to the provision of Section 91 of the Act, the Board of Directors may from time-to-time make such calls as they think fit upon the members in respect of all moneys unpaid on the shares held by them respectively and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times, and the member shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the persons, at the time and place appointed by the Board of Directors.
24. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising such unless the resolution determine that the call shall be deemed to be made on a date subsequent to the date of the resolution: and in the absence of such a provision a call shall be deemed to have been made on the same date as that of the resolution of the Board of Directors making such calls.
25. Not less than twenty-one day's notice of any call shall be given specifying the time and place of payment provided that the Board may, by notice in writing to the members, extend the time for payment thereof.
26. If by the terms of issue of any share or otherwise, any amount is made payable at any fixed time or by instalment, at fixed times whether on account of the share or by way of premium every such amount or instalment shall be payable as if it were call duly made by the Directors, of which due notice had been given, and all the provisions herein contained in respect of call shall relate and apply to such amount or instalment accordingly.
27. If the sum payable in respect of any call or, instalment be not paid on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, the holder for the time being of the share in respect of which the call shall have been made or the instalment shall be due, shall pay interest for the same from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment at a rate as the Directors may determine. The Board of Directors are also at liberty to waive payment of interest wholly or in part.
28. The provisions of these Articles as to payment of interest shall apply in the case of non payment of any sum which by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the amount of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
29. The Board of Directors, may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him and upon all or any part of the moneys so advanced may (until the same would, but for such advance become presently payable) pay interest at such rate as the Board of Directors may decide but shall not in respect of such advances confer a right to the dividend or participate in profits.
30. Neither a judgement nor a decree in favour of the company for calls or other moneys due in respect of any share nor any part payment or satisfaction thereunder nor the receipt by the company of a portion of any money which shall from time to time be due from any member in respect of any share either by way of principal or interest nor any indulgence granted by the Company in respect of the payment of any such money shall preclude the company from proceeding to enforce a forfeiture of such shares as hereinafter provided.
31. If a member fails to pay any calls or instalment of a call on the day appointed for the payment thereof, the Board of Directors may at any time thereafter during such time as any part of such call or instalment remains unpaid serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest, which may have accrued. The Board may accept in the name and for the benefit of the company and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon, the surrender of any share liable to forfeiture and so far as the law permits of any other shares.

32. On the trial or hearing of any action or suit brought by the Company against any shareholder or his representative to recover any debt or money claimed to be due to the Company in respect of his share, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the defendant is or, was, when the claim arose, on the Register of shareholders of the company as a holder, or one of the holders of the number of shares in respect of which such claim is made, and that the amount claimed is not entered as paid in the books of the company and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made any call nor that a quorum of Directors was present at the Board at which any call was made as duly convened or constituted nor any other matter whatsoever, but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.
33. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that, in the event of non-payment on or behalf the day appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.
34. If the requirements of any such notice as aforementioned are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.
35. When any shares have been so forfeited, notice of the resolution shall be given to the member in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture and an entry of the forfeiture shall not be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid.
36. A forfeited or surrendered share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such a manner as the Board may think fit and at any time before such a sale or disposal, the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Board may think fit.
37. A person, whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be member in respect of the forfeited shares, and notwithstanding such forfeiture, remain liable to pay and shall forthwith pay the Company all moneys, which at the date of forfeiture is payable by him to the company in respect of the share whether such claim be barred by limitation on the date of the forfeiture or not but his liability shall cease if and when the company received payment in full or all such moneys due in respect of the shares.
38. The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction of all interest in and also of all claim and demands against the Company in respect of the shares and all other rights incidental to the share, except only such of these rights as by these Articles are expressly saved.
39. A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director of the Company and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, and that declaration and the receipt of the company for the consideration, if any given for the shares on the sale or disposal thereof, shall constitute a good title to the share and the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of shall be registered as the holder of the share and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any) nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.

40. The provisions of these regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non payment of any sum which by terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at fixed time, whether on account of the amount of the share or by way of premium or otherwise as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
41. Upon any sale after forfeiture or for enforcing a lien in purported exercise of the powers herein before given the directors may cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the register in respect of the shares held and may issue a fresh certificate in the name of such purchaser. The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity of the proceedings nor to the application of the purchase money and after his name has been entered in the register in respect of such shares the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively,

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

42. (a) The instrument of transfer of any shares in the Company shall be executed both by the transferer and the transferee and the transferer shall be deemed to remain holder of the shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of members in respect thereof.
 - (b) The Board shall not register any transfer of shares unless proper instrument of transfer duly stamped and executed by the transferer and the transferee has been delivered to the company along with the certificate and such other evidence as the Company may require to prove the title of the transferer or his right to transfer the shares.

Provided that where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Board that an instrument of transfer signed by the transferor and the transferee has been lost, the Company may, if the Board thinks fit, on an application in writing made by the transferee and bearing the stamp required for an instrument of transfer register the transfer on such terms as to indemnity as the Board may think fit.

- (c) Nothing in this Article shall prejudice any power of the Board to register the transfer of any shares to a transferee, whether a member or not, within the framework of the Act.
43. Shares in the Company shall be transferred by an instrument in writing in the prescribed form as specified in Section 108 of the Companies Act.
44. (a) The Board may, at their absolute discretion and without any assigned reason, decline to register:
 1. The transfer of any share whether fully paid or not to a person of whom they do not approve, or
 2. Any transfer or transmission of shares on which the Company has a lien.

Provided that registration of any transfer shall not be refused on the ground of the transfer or being either alone or jointly with any other person or persons indebted to the Company on any account whatsoever except a lien on the share.

- (b) If the Board refuses to register any transfer or transmission of right they shall within two months from the date on which the instrument of transfer or the intimation of such transmission was delivered to the Company, send notice, of the refusal to the transferee and the transferrer or to the person giving intimation of such transmission as the case may be.
 - (c) In case of refusal by the Board, the decision of the Board shall be subject to the right of the appeal conferred by Section 111, Sub-clause (3) of the Act.
 - (d) The provisions of this clause shall apply to transfer of stock also.
45. (a) The Board, at their discretion, may decline to recognise or accept an instrument of transfer of shares unless the instrument of transfer is in respect of one class of shares.
- (b) No fee shall be charged by the Company for registration of the transfers or for effecting transmission of shares on the death of a member or for registering any letters of probate, letters of administration and similar other documents.
 - (c) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-articles (b) or Article 42, the Board may not accept applications for sub-division or consolidation of shares into denominations of less than marketable lots except when such sub-division or consolidation is required to be made to comply with a statutory order or of an order of a competent court of law.
- * 45A. The Company and / or the promoters of the Company shall promptly inform the Investor as soon as they become aware of any single person, either by itself or with persons acting in concert, acquires more than 5% of the Company's issued and paid up share capital.
- * 45B. Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in these Articles: (i) the Investor shall not be required to pledge directly or indirectly any security held by it, or provide any guarantee or any other support (financial or otherwise) to any third party, including but not limited to, the lenders of the Company and/or any subsidiaries of the Company; and (ii) any transfer of shares by the Investor and/or any promoters of the Company shall be subject to such agreements as may be executed by the Investor and the promoters of the Company in writing.

NOMINATION OF SHARES

- 45C. (a) Every holder of shares in, or holder of debentures of, the Company may, at any time, nominate a person to whom his shares in, or debentures of, the Company shall vest in the event of his death in the manner prescribed in the Act.
- (b) Where the shares in, or debentures of, the Company are held by more than one person jointly, the joint holders may together nominate a person to whom all the rights in the shares or debentures of the Company, shall vest in the event of death of all the joint holders in the manner prescribed in the Act.
 - (c) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force or in any disposition, whethertestamentary or otherwise, in respect of such shares in, or debentures of, the company, where a nomination made in the manner prescribed in the Act purports to confer on any person the right to vest the shares in, or debentures of, the Company, the nominee shall, on the death of the shareholder or holder of debentures of, the Company or, as the case may be, on the death of the joint holders become entitled to all the rights in the shares or debentures of the Company or, as the case may be, all the joint holders, in relation to such shares in, or debentures of the Company, to the exclusion of all other persons, unless the nomination is varied or cancelled in the manner prescribed in the Act,

- (d) Where the nominee is a minor, it shall be lawful for the holder of the shares, or holder of debentures, to make the nomination to appoint, in the manner prescribed in the Act, any person to become entitled to shares in or debentures of, the Company in the event of his death during the minority."

- 46. (1) In the event of death of any one or more of several joint holders, the survivor or survivors, alone shall be entitled to be recognised as having title to the shares.
- (2) In the event of death of any one holder or on the death of last surviving holder, the executors or administrators of such holder or other person legally entitled to the shares shall be recognised by the Company as having title to the shares of the deceased.

Provided that on production of such evidence as to title and on such indemnity or other terms as the Board may deem sufficient, any person may be recognised as having title to the shares as heir or legal representative of the deceased shareholder.

Provided further that if the deceased shareholder was a member of Hindu joint family, the Board on being satisfied to that effect and on being satisfied that the shares standing in his name in fact belonged to the joint family, may recognise the survivors or the Karta thereof as having title to the shares registered in the name of such member:

- 46A. (1) Any person who becomes a nominee by virtue of the provisions of Section 109A of the Act, upon the production of such evidence as may be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect, either -

- (a) To be registered himself as holder of the share or debenture, as the case may be; or

To make such transfer of the share or debenture, as the case may be, as the deceased shareholder or debentureholder, as the case may be, could have made.

- (2) If the person being a nominee, so becoming entitled, elects to be registered as holder of the share or debenture, himself, as the case may be, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects and such notice shall be accompanied with the death certificate of the deceased shareholder or debenture holder, as the case may be.
- (3) All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of the act relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares or debentures, shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that shareholder or debentureholder, as the case may be.
- (4) A person, being a nominee, becoming entitled to a share or debenture by reason of the death of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share or debenture except that he shall not, before being registered a member in respect of his share or debenture, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company;

Provided that the Board may, at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share or debenture, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of the share or debenture, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with."

47. (1) Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either:-
 - (a) to be registered himself as a holder of the share:
 - (b) to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or insolvent member could have made.
- (2) The Board, shall in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as it would have had, if the deceased or insolvent member had transferred the share before his death or insolvency
48. (1) If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered as holder of the shares himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects.
- (2) If the person aforesaid shall elect to transfer the share, he shall testify his election by executing a transfer of the share.
- (3) All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these regulations relating to the rights to transfer and the registration of transfer of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or insolvency of the member had not occurred and the notice of transfer had been signed by that member.
49. No transfer shall be made to an infant or a person of unsound mind or a minor.
50. Every endorsement upon the certificate of any share in favour of any transferee shall be made by the Secretary or by some person for the time being duly authorised by the Board in that behalf.
51. The instrument of transfer shall, after registration remain in the custody of the Company. The Board may cause to be destroyed all transfer deeds lying with the Company for a period of eight years or more.
52. (1) The Company shall keep a book to be called the "Register of Members" and therein shall be entered the particulars every transfer or transmission of any shares and all other particulars of shares required by the Act to be entered in such Register.
- (2) The Board may after giving not less than seven days previous notice by advertisement in some newspapers circulating in the district in which the Registered Office of the Company is situate, close the Register of Members or the Register of Debenture Holders for any period or periods not exceeding in the aggregate forty-five days in each year but not exceeding thirty days at any one time.
- (3) All instruments of transfer which shall be registered shall be retained by the Company but any instrument of transfer which the Directors may decline to register shall be returned to the person depositing the same.

53. The Company shall incur no liability or responsibility whatever in consequence of their registering or giving effect to any transfer of shares made or purporting to be made by any apparent legal owner thereof (as shown or appearing in the Register of Members) to the prejudice of person having or claiming any equitable right, title or interest to/in the same shares notwithstanding that the Company may have had notice of such equitable right or title to interest prohibiting registration of such transfer and may have entered such notice referred thereto in any book of the Company and the Company shall not be bound by or required to regard or attend to or give effect to any notice which may be given to it of any equitable right, title or interest or be under any liability whatsoever for refusing or neglecting so to do, though it may have been entered or referred to in the books of the Company, but the Company shall nevertheless be at liberty to have regard and to attend to any such notice and give effect thereto, if the Board shall think fit.

SET OFF OF MONEYS DUE TO SHAREHOLDERS

58. Any money due from the Company to a shareholder may, without the consent of such shareholder, be applied by the Company in or towards payment of any money due from him, either alone or jointly with any other person, to the Company in respect of calls.

GENERAL MEETING

59. The Company shall in each year hold in addition on to the other meeting a general meeting which shall be styled as its annual general meeting at intervals and in accordance with the provisions of Section 166 of the Act.
60. (1) Extraordinary General Meetings may be held either at the Registered Office of the Company or at such convenient place as the Board may deem fit within the local limits of the place where the Registered Office is situated.
- (2) The Board may convene an Extraordinary General Meeting at such time and place as may be determined.
61. (a) The Board shall on the requisition of such number of members of the Company specified below proceed duly to call an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company and comply with the provisions of the Act in regard to meetings on requisition.
- (b) The requisition shall set out matters for the consideration of which the meeting is to be called, shall be signed, by the requisitionists and shall be deposited at the Registered office of the Company or sent to the Company by Registered Post addressed to the Company at its Registered Office.
- (c) The requisition may consist of several documents in like forms each signed by one or more requisitionists.
- (d) The number of members entitled to requisition a meeting in regard to any matter shall be such number of them as hold on the date of the deposit of the requisition of not less than 1/10th of such of the paid-up capital of the Company as at the date carries the right of voting in regard to the matter set out in requisition.
- (e) If the Board does not within 21 days from the date of deposit of the requisition with regard to any matters proceed duly to call a meeting for the consideration of these matters on a date not later than 45 days from the date of deposit of the requisition, the meeting may be called by the requisitionists themselves or such, of the requisitionists, as represent either majority in value of the paid-up share capital held by them or of not less than 1 /10 th of such paid-up capital of the Company as is referred to in Sub-Clause (d) above whichever is less.

62. A General Meeting of the Company may be called by giving not less than twenty-one day's notice in writing, provided that a General Meeting may be called after giving shorter notice if consent thereto is accorded in the case of the Annual General Meeting by all the members entitled to vote thereat and in the case of any other meeting of the Company holding not less than 95% of the part of the paid-up share capital which gives the right to vote on the matters to be considered at the meeting.

Provided that where any members of a Company are entitled to vote only on some resolution or resolutions to be moved at a meeting and not on the others, those members shall be taken into account for purpose of this clause in respect of the former resolution or resolutions and not in respect of the latter.

63. The accidental omission to give notice of any meeting to or the non-receipt of any such notice by any of the members shall not invalidate the proceedings, or any resolution passed at such meeting.
64. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary Meeting and also that is transacted at an Annual Meeting with the exception of declaration of dividend, the consideration of the accounts, Balance Sheets and the reports of the Directors and Auditørs, the election of the Directors in the place of those retiring, and the appointment of and the fixing of the remuneration of Auditørs. Where any item of business to be transacted at the meeting are deemed to be special as aforesaid, there shall be annexed to the notice of the meeting a statement setting out all material facts concerning each such item of business, including in particular the nature of the concern or interest, if any, therein, of every Director. If any item of business consists of the according of approval to any documents by the meeting, the time and place where the document can be inspected shall be specified in the statement aforesaid.

Provided that where any item of special business to be transacted at meeting of the Company relates to or affects any other company there shall also be set out in the statement if the extent of such holding interest of the Directors or Manager of the Company in the other company of such interest is not less than 20% of the paid up share capital of the other Company.

65. Five members personally present shall be quorum for a General Meeting and no business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless the requisite quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business.
66. If within half an hour from the time appointed for a meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if called upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; in any other case, It shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week and at the same time and place or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Board may determine and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the members present shall be a quorum.
67. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, shall preside at every general meeting of the Company and if he is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or if he is unwilling to act as Chairman the Joint Chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside every general meeting of the Company.
68. If there is no such Chairman or if at any General Meeting the Chairman is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or if they are unwilling to act as Chairman the members present shall choose a Director present, to be the Chairman of the meeting and if no Directors present and all the Directors are unwilling to take the chair, the members present shall choose someone of their number to be the Chairman.

69. The Chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present and shall, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn that meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Same as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give in any notice of an adjourned meeting of the business to be transacted at that meeting.
70. At a General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded, in accordance with the provisions of Section 179. Unless a poll is so demanded a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has, on a show of hands has or has not been carried either unanimously or by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the book of the proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution.
71. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall, both on a show of hands and on a poll, have a casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which he may be entitled as a member.
72. If a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the provisions of Section 179, it shall be taken in such manner as the Chairman, subject to the provisions of Section 184 and Section 185 of Act may direct, and the results of the poll shall be deemed to be the decision of the meeting on the resolutions on which the poll was taken.
73. A poll demanded on the election of Chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time not being later than fortyeight hours from the time when demand was made as the Chairman may direct.
74. (a) Every member of the Company holding any Equity share capital shall have a right to vote in respect of such capital on every resolution placed before the Company. On a show of hands, every such member present shall have one vote and shall be entitled to vote in person or by a proxy and his voting right on a poll shall be in proportion to 'his share of the paid up Equity Capital of the Company.

Such dividend shall be deemed to be due on Preference shares in respect of any period, whether a dividend has been declared by the Company for such period or not, on the day immediately following such period.

(c) Whenever the holder of a Preference Share has right to vote on any resolution in accordance with the provision of this Article, his voting right on a poll shall be in the same proportion as the capital paid up in respect of such Preference shares bears to the total equity paid up capital of the Company.

75. A demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than that on which a poll has been demanded. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn at any time by the person or persons who made the demand.
76. In the case of joint holders, the vote of the first named of such joint holders who tenders a vote whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other jointholders.
77. No member shall be entitled to vote at a general meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares in the Company have been paid.
78. On a poll, votes may be given either personally or by proxy provided that a body corporate which is a member of the company shall vote in accordance with the provisions of Section 187 of the Act.
79. (a) The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of appointer or of his attorney duly authorised in writing, or if the appointer is a Corporation, either under the Common Seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney so authorised. Any person may act as proxy whether he is a member or not.

(b) A body corporate (whether a company within the meaning of this Act or not) may:
 - (i) If it is a member of the Company by resolution of its Board of Directors or other covering body, authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representatives at any meeting of the Company, or at any meeting of class of members of the Company.
 - (ii) If it is a creditor (including a holder of debentures) of the Company, by resolution of its Directors or other governing body, authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative on any meeting of any creditors of the Company held in pursuance of this Act or of any rules made thereunder, or in pursuance of the provisions contained in any debenture or trust deed, as the case may be.
- (c) A person authorised by resolution as aforesaid shall be entitled to exercise the same rights and powers (including the right to vote by proxy) on behalf of the body corporate which he represents, as if he were personally the member, creditor or debenture holder.
80. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority shall be deposited at the Registered Office of the Company not less than forty eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or, adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.
81. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death of the appointer, or revocation of the proxy, or transfer of the share in respect of which the vote is given provided no intimation in writing of the death, revocation or transfer shall have been received at the Registered Office of the Company before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.
82. Any instrument appointing a proxy may be a two way proxy form to enable the shareholders to vote for or against any resolution at their discretion.

*83 Unless otherwise determined by a General Meeting the number of Directors shall not be less than 3 and not more than 15 (fifteen) Directors.

* Amended vide Special resolution at the Annual General Meeting dated 31.7.2014.
